A Boston man recently regaled a party of friends with a story about a certain nameless club in Boston which has strict regulations against gam-

A quartet of club members decided to break that rule by a game of poker for small stakes. So they adjourned to one of the small rooms of the club and called the old colored servant to bring a pack of cards. When he brought them, one of the members

"John, I suppose it would be something utterly new in this club if we should do such a thing as play for money with these cards?'
The negro scratched his head and deliberated, finally answering:

"Boss, I'ze been wid dis club a long time and I'ze seen many things."
"Yes, but what have you seen?"
"I'ze seen ebry rule ob dis club vi-

A Concession In Price.

"People in frontier towns," said a Klondike pioneer, "get used to paying big money for trifles, and $2 for a box of sardines and $5 for a pound of bad coffee become reasonable prices. kicked once upon a time because the price asked was too small. It was like this: I had a jumping toothache, was nearly wild with it, when I went to the shanty where I was told there was n dentist. A rough looking fellow told me that he was it, and I asked him to draw my tooth. He looked me over, got his forceps fastened on my tooth and yanked it out after a couple of bard twists.

'How much?' I asked.

"'Well, $2. I guess,' said the dentist. "I paid him, although my jaw still ached pretty badly.
"'That's the cheapest thing I've seen around here,' I said.

"'Well,' he said, 'I thought I'd make it low because, on account of the bad light. I pulled the wrong tooth.'

"I had to go the next day to have the bad tooth out, and he made matters square by charging me $10."-New York Tribune.

The Inventor of the Cork. Don Perignon, a poor blind monk, first thought of cork for bottle stop-pers. He was employed in a royal monastery as overseer of the extensive vineyards, being himself a manufacturer. Indeed, it is said be discovered by experimenting with wines and grape juices that highly effervescing beverage known as champange. Necessity in his case was doubtless the mother of his inventing the cork stopper, for his champagne must have per, for his champing than w then needed a better stopper than w soaked used—merely a bunch arx soaked used—merely a bunch arst to put a cork in oil. If he was arrived is indebted to him, since its impermiability, elasticity and lightness render it invaluable

How Ney Faced Death.

Marshal Ney was the son of a hard-working cooper and had risen from the ranks of the army. He was a child of the people, and whatever may have been his vanities be threw them all aside in his last days.

When he was led out to death, an officer ordered a bandage tied over his 'Why should you do that?" said Ney

"Haven't I been accustomed for twenty-five years to look bullets and cannon He himself ordered the soldiers to

His career summed up in one life the spectacular heroism of the past.

Sippets, mentioned often in English stories, may be either of bread or of toast. Sippets of toast are thin obbrown, slightly buttered and piled in one or two layers, log cabin fashion, without breaking, on a folded napkin; or the sippets are of untoasted bread arranged on a hot plate, the juice from roasted beef or mutton poured over.

A simple weather glass is made thus: Obtain a glass jar, such as is used for pickles, and put some water into it; then get a bottle with a long neck, if possible, and put it in the jar, with the neck downward, till the mouth just touches the water. When the water rises in the bottle, it is going to rain, and when it is down fine weather pre-

"What does this mean, daughter? Here is another lot of milliners' and dressmakers' bills. Don't you remember that I expressly ordered you not to contract any more debts without my knowledge?"

"Certainly, papa, but I haven't contracted any debts. On the contrary, I've expanded them."

Judge (to prisoner)-You are charged with having seriously injured your wife by inclosing her in a folding bed. What have you to say for yourself? Prisoner-Your honor, I wished to see if it was possible to shut her up.

"I think," she said, "I should like to marry an imaginative man."

"Well," said her friend, speaking very sweetly, "what other kind of a man can you expect to marry, if he has a chance to see you in daylight?"

ABOUT KODOL DYSPEDSIA CURE.

That's Why Its Sale is increasing so Raptdly-So there must be Something In Merit After All.

Fair minded people always admit it when they find an article of merit. If it has done them good they want it to help others, too. Thousands bear witness to the wouderful curative qualities of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It is the only preparation which positively and completely digests any good food you may cat. No one disputes the fact that some other digestants partially accomplish this result. Pepsin, for instance, is found in the healthy stomach. When it is lacking, the patient takes pepsin and it helps him. But pepsin digests only albuminous foods, like meat and eggs. Maybe there's plenty of pepsin and a lack of the other digestants. Then it does no good. That's the trouble with the other preparations. They don't coutain all the digestants. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure contains them all. It digests any good food you want. You don't have to diet. The feeling of tulness after eating is immediately celleved by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. "I see Kodol Byspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most of the time until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. "The Milland, pa. "I had dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most of the time until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. "Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa.

A Young LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Fanama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician, of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by Richard Gibson,
